December 2008

Dear New Student,

We look forward to meeting you on January 7, 2009 at our Orientation session for students who will be entering Edinboro University for the spring semester. Great things happen at Edinboro and our faculty, staff and students are planning a great day to assist you in the transition to experience all that Edinboro University has to offer you!

By attending orientation you will be better prepared to begin the semester through the following:

- ✦ Receive your Edinboro University ID card
- ✦ Participate in English and math placement testing, as needed
- ✦ Receive your schedule for the spring semester
- ✦ Experience group advising and discussions with the dean and/or faculty from your school
- ✦ Receive instruction related to accessing University technology resources
- ✦ Have an opportunity to meet with staff from housing, student services, and financial aid
- ✦ Visit the campus bookstore
- ✦ Complete any University business (bill payment, housing selection, etc.)

The event will begin at Crawford Center, accessible from Route 99 (Meadville Street). You may park in the located between Reeder Hall and Crawford Center. Signs will direct you to the parking location. No parking permit will be required on that day. The complete schedule may be accessed from the orientation website.

Please plan to arrive by 9:45 a.m.

For reference and locations, university map is located at: <http://webs.edinboro.edu/pubrel/campusmap/campusmap.html>

There will be activities and meetings for parents or family members who attend. Should you have any questions, please contact us!

Sincerely,
Kimberly Kennedy,
